Wellington Rocks, Royal Tunbridge Wells

Town & country at its best

Tunbridge Wells is an area with beautiful towns, including Royal Tunbridge Wells and Cranbrook, quintessential English villages and rolling countryside.

The spa town of Royal Tunbridge Wells is famed for its Georgian colonnaded walkway, The Pantiles, the Chalybeate Spring, as well as its boutique shopping, green spaces, heritage railway and quality restaurants. Visitors can uncover the history of the town with guided or self-guided history tours.

Cranbrook is a smaller, tranquil town with a variety of independent restaurants, cafes and shops and has one of the most beautiful high streets in Kent thanks to its colourful stores and old town charm. The smaller villages of Goudhurst and Lamberhurst offer country pubs, scenic walking routes and tea rooms all surrounded by verdant countryside.

Top Attractions in Tunbridge Wells

Scotney Castle

Often described as a fairytale castle, Scotney is a beautiful National Trust property comprising a ruined medieval castle, Victorian mansion house and rolling parkland. Visitors can enjoy spectacular views, manicured gardens and enchanting estate walks.

Bedgebury Pinetum

An award-winning collection of conifers, Bedgebury Pinetum has something for everyone. Offering a beautiful backdrop for walking, cycling or enjoying a picnic, the great outdoors just got a little greater.

Sissinghurst Castle & Garden

Writer Vita Sackville-West and her husband Harold Nicholson transformed the gardens of Sissinghurst Castle into the world-renowned, dazzling display they are today. Highlights include the Rose Garden, the White Garden, the views from the top of the tower and the long estate walks.

Bowl Water

Bowl Water is the largest reservoir in South East England. It offers a selection of walking and cycling trails, watersports including rowing, sailing and paddleboarding. With twelve and half miles of routes to explore, it's the ideal place to get outdoors.

The Amelia Scott

Perfectly positioned in the heart of Royal Tunbridge Wells, The Amelia Scott is a museum, art gallery, library and exhibition space. Visit to discover the history of Tunbridge Wells and why the town was bestowed Royal status. Check the Amelia's website for current exhibitions.

Spa Valley Railway

A heritage railway running on a 5-mile scenic route through the High Weald area of outstanding natural beauty. With four stations: Royal Tunbridge Wells, High Rocks, Eridge and Groombridge there's somewhere to explore at every destination along the way.

The Pantiles

The Georgian-colonnaded walkway sprung up in the 1600s after the discovery of the Spring. Thought to offer medicinal benefits, the Spring brought in visitors from London and put Tunbridge Wells on the map. Today, The Pantiles offers a beautiful row of restaurants and bars.

Walking

Tunbridge Wells offers some of the best walking routes in the South East. From the Tunbridge Wells Circular which traverses many of the quaint villages in the area, to the Scotney Castle circular which offers stunning views of the Scotney Castle estate.

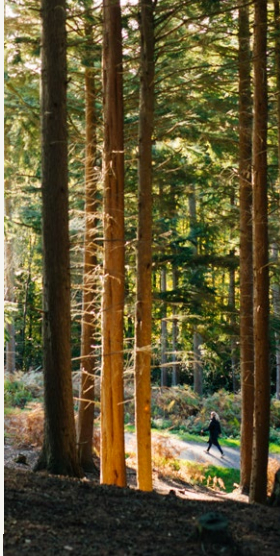

Dog-friendly

Did you know that Tunbridge Wells is one of the most dog-friendly destinations in Kent. With many of its visitor attractions perfect for pooches, as well over one hundred of Royal Tunbridge Wells' shops and restaurants.

Food and drink

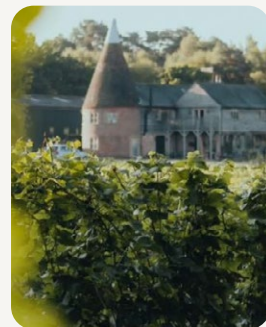

Tunbridge Wells is known as a great foodie destination. From Michelin-star chefs to award-winning burger restaurants, whatever your taste, there's something for you to enjoy on a visit here!
